Weka stands on the bank. Tuna zig zags in the awa. “Chat with me!” says Weka.
“I cannot chat,” says Tuna. “I must swim to the deep sea to breed.”
“What is the rush?” asks Weka.

“I am on a quest,” says Tuna.

“I am big and strong.”
“This is my big job,” says Tuna.
“I need to go to the deep sea to breed.”
“It is sad you must go. We had fun in the awa,” says Weka.

“Good luck. Haere rā!”
The Long Swim

Reading practice
This story provides children with the opportunity to practise reading the letter-sound patterns they have learned, alongside learning other high utility non-decodable words.

Focus sounds
Revision
Introduce the story to children and read the story aloud together. There are two types of words in the story: regular decodable words and other words that are not. The decodable words that contain the focus sounds are listed below, along with the words that can't be sounded out.

Support children to sound out the regular words and then blend the sounds together to read the word. When reading the other words that can’t be sounded out, children can simply be told the words. Give plenty of praise for children’s reading attempts and encourage re-reading to build accuracy and fluency.

Regular words for sounding out stands, on, bank, zig, in, chat, with, cannot, must, swim, deep, breed, big, rush, am, strong, this, quest, need, breed, had, fun, luck

Other words to tell your child sea, haere rā

Phonological awareness
Practise segmenting and blending sounds together to make words. You could say, "Let’s say the sounds (phonemes) together in each word I say."
Have children find each word you segment and blend on the page.
Use the table below for suggestions on how to segment and blend target words from this story.

- rush r-u-sh
- breed b-r-e-e-d
- quest qu-e-s-t
- swim s-w-i-m
- stands s-t-a-n-d-s

Morphological awareness
Bring attention to how words can change (e.g., rush, rushed, rushing). Draw attention to the part of the word that is the same and the part that is different. Create sentences using different forms of the word rush.

Vocabulary
Talk about the meaning of the word quest. Think of other words with a similar meaning that would make sense in the sentence:

"I am on a quest," says Tuna (e.g., adventure, job).
Ask children to create their own sentences using quest.

Spelling
Support children to listen and identify where the sound change occurs in words. Use the suggested letters or letter blocks to spell and read the words. Prompt as necessary to ensure success.

Use the phrasing: "If this word spells chat, spell bat. If this word spells bat, spell sat."

Easier changes: chat > bat > sat > sap
Harder changes: swim > swam > sam

Story discussion
Talk about the journey that longfin eels (tuna) make at the end of their life, travelling to the sea to breed. Look online for more about this journey at:

Story retell
Ask the children to retell the story to a friend or family member. Prompt as necessary, using picture cues. Give plenty of praise and encouragement for verbal responses.
